Senior Week Features Party Pilgrimage, Tea

Senior week officially opens Sunday, May 23, with the Alumnae Tea to be held at the Forest Hill Clubhouse from 3:00 to 5:30. Members of the graduating class are to be guests of the alumnae at this time. Other State students desiring to attend the tea may purchase tickets in the Co-op for thirty-five cents each. The theme of the tea will be a garden-party idea.

Monday afternoon, May 24, from 4:00 to 6:00, the Seniors will again be guests at a tea. The faculty of the college will be the hosts at this affair.

On the same evening, a Suppressed Desire Party has been planned for the graduates. The idea is for the seniors to dress as they have always wanted to dress when attending a party. Class members will each be allowed one guest, at an admission price of 25c each. Dancing and games will occupy the program of the evening.

A picnic and launch ride to Paradise Cove has been arranged for the class. This will be on Tuesday, May 25.

The annual Senior Pilgrimage has been scheduled for Wednesday, May 26, starting at 9:30 a. m. Graduates will meet at that time in caps and gowns, and, led by the speakers, will visit the various points of interest and reverence on the campus.

Speakers for the Pilgrimage will be: At the gymnasium, Miss Velda Cundiff and Miss Lorraine Lindeberg; in Anderson Hall, Mr. Carlos Mundt, and Mr. Harry Post; at the Kindergarten-Primary Building, Miss Alice P. Alcutt and Miss Harriet White; at Frederic Burk, Miss Grace Carter and Miss

"Country Club Atmosphere" Said of East Bay Hotel

Because of the current hotel strike now in progress in San Francisco, the annual Senior Ball will be held at the Hotel Alameda tomorrow evening. The affair is scheduled to start at 9:00 p. m. and Nat Thomas and his twelve-piece orchestra will furnish the music.

Helene Rowan, chairman of the dance, states, "The Hotel Alameda has a typical country club atmosphere, and I'm sure that everyone will have a grand time. So that you won't get lost, maps will be presented everybody who buys a bid, which, incidentally, are selling for $1.25 each." The location of the Hotel is Broadway, at Central at Santa Clara.

The affair is to be a semi-formal one, with corsages optional. It is hoped by committee members, however, that many of those attending will come formal.

A feature of the evening will be the novel programs, which are to serve as favors as well. The exact nature of these is being kept a secret until the evening of the ball.

Students are urged to buy bids as soon as possible. Although bids will be sold at the door, there will be an increase in price at that time. Bids are on sale in the main hall of College Hall, between the hours of 10:00 and 3:00. Bids are limited to 200.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair are Dr. and Mrs. Sherman Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Treutlein, and Miss Grace Carter.

Committee members working on the preparations for the Senior Ball are: Helene Rowan, chairman; Navarre Baggett; Barbara Smith; Dolores Waters, Marie Quartararo, Hal Delma, Charles Martin, and Stanley Sieber. Committee membership was drawn from both the low seniors and the graduating class.

Franciscan Price Raise Set By Editors

With the 1937 Franciscan almost ready for delivery, price of the book will now be $2.00 per copy unless a previous deposit has reserved it. This was the ultimatum of managers of the book today.

Final forms were run off Wednesday and the pages are now in the hands of the binder for assembling and attaching of covers. Delivery date of first copies will be about May 20.

Signs on the bulletin board of College Hall will give the time, date, and location of distribution a few days before actual delivery.

Final payments on deposits should be made as soon as possible to speed up delivery. Full price for those with previous deposits is $1.50.

Prospects Bright For New Buildings

By W. J. J. SMITH

Prospects for the passage of an appropriation bill in the State Legislature including a sum of $950,000 for new buildings at this college appeared reasonably bright today according to all late reports. Word from the San Francisco delegation at the capitol stated that the measure would probably reach the Governor's desk today.

The bill is a compromise measure involving $5,000,000 in capital outlay for state institutions and has the strong backing of several powerful groups representing the educational units of the state.

In the event that the money is received work on a new administration building would begin early in the fall, according to authentic word from the college office.

Plans for the new administration building have been under consideration for some time and all major details concerning size, number of rooms, auditorium room, little theater, offices, and cafeteria have been worked out. It seems probable that unless modifications are adopted that the structure would be a fire proof, four story building, housing administration offices, cafeteria, approximately 25 classrooms an auditorium seating 2500 persons, and a large library chamber.

It was emphasized by Ed Cockrum, student body president and all administration officials that the bill was still uncertain though most indications show that it will be favorably acted upon.

Guiney, Vallarino Managing Editors; Hal Widney to Chase Ads

Clifford Worth and Bill Buchan, newly elected editors of the Gater and Franciscan, respectively, were feted at the Annual Publications Dinner, held Wednesday evening at a well-known Italian cafe.

Other successful candidates for publication positions were: Louise Vallarino and Tim Guiney, managing editors; Hal Widney, business manager of the Gater. Due to a dearth of petitions for the job no business manager of the Franciscan was chosen.

Neil Hitt, speaker of the evening, entertained the entire gathering with his delicate description of San Quentin hangings on "robin's egg blue scaffolds" and a recounting of his youthful adventures as a journalist.

Howard Demeke, newly elected Student Director of Publications, served as toastmaster of the evening, making necessary introductions and remarks.

A feature of the evening was the presentation of gifts to Max Williamson, retiring editor of the Golden Gater; Nola Keller, retiring business manager; Bob Barry, retiring editor of the Franciscan; Stanley Sieber, retiring business manager and Clarice Dechent, retiring Director of Publications, who presented Elsa Magnus, outgoing president of Alpha Phi Gamma with a guard for her pin.

Dr. Roy Cave, faculty sponsor of publications, was introduced to the group, and spoke a few words. Other faculty members introduced were: Miss Mary L. Kleinecke, Mrs. Ruth Witt-Diamant, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Shull, and Mr. Frank Baker.

Rosemary Alexander was chairman of the dinner. She was assisted in her arrangements by Elsa Magnus.

WORTH SAYS . . .

Dear Reader:

As the end of the semester draws near, and my somewhat journalistically inclined brain grows weary of the eternal strife and strain, I cannot find it in my heart to be so ruthless as to further beat and otherwise coerce my tired staff into turning their usual amount of copy. Therefore you find these columns somewhat bare of news.

Of course, as you read this you say "the paper never did have any news in it." Dear Reader, this is only too true. But if just ONE of you attempts to invade the sanctity of the pub office, and remind me of that fact, I shall no doubt commit mayhem, or something.

Perhaps after the three month vacation, during which time I shall personally do nothing but vegetate, I may again acquire enough of that certain vital force which enables harassed editors to combat the world and defend the pride and joy of his life, (also his undoing) the paper.

Hence, may I extend to you a cordial invitation to present yourselves in the pub office any time next semester and deliver yourselves of any peevish which you may have accumulated, and heap them on my undeserving head?

No doubt many of you will avail yourselves of this invitation. I don't care, only DON'T come in now!

I think that maybe my outlook on life right now is somewhat warped. As I sit before my typewriter now, pounding out this letter to you, my subconscious mind is rapidly reviewing the fact that there is very little material in my copy basket with which to fill the paper. This does things to me. I forget that I am hungry, I worry about those unfilled columns, and now I write on and on . . .

Some of you may accuse me that this letter is being written merely to fill up space. You accuse rightly. But if you come in to my office and tell me so, I'll blow a fuse. People tell me that when I blow a fuse, I am very unpleasant. A word to the wise is supposed to be sufficient.

My newspaperman's (?) intuition is now gently whispering in mine ear that this space is about full. Shall I heed that clarion call?

I will.

With apologies,
THE EDITOR

REGISTRATION PROCEDURE FOR FALL SEMESTER SAME; MORE HELP NEEDED

The registration procedure for the fall semester will be similar to that of last term, with a few changes in the set-up of departments in the gym and in the hours for registration.

General chairman Eleanor Messenger and sub-chairmen Dorothy Ayling, Betty Creon, Erile Long, Dorothy Lavelle, Barbara Young, and Guido Fumigali are all working hard to insure a successful registration.

There is still room for a few more students for the gym committee. Those wishing to work on this committee please sign up in College Hall or communicate with Erile Long, box 716. The faculty and student body have cooperated with us one hundred per cent and with their continued support we feel sure that we can have an outstanding registration.

Please observe the following:

1. Students will prevent delay in registration by making certain that the application to professional training has been duly filed with Mrs. Downey before attempting to register in any education courses except Education 2 and Music Education courses.
2. The one to two hour has proven the time when there has been the most congestion in the lines. All students who can and will register at some other hour will help prevent the recurrence of this difficulty.
3. Entrance to Education 186 restricted to high seniors.
4. All students registering for practice teaching must have programs signed by their supervisor.

French Club Declamation Tourney Held Thursday

By ALMARIE PORTEOUS

Do you speak French? Or are you interested in the language? Well, anyway, would you like to be the proud possessor of a gold medal? If so, drop around to the Activities Room next Thursday at four o'clock and give a listen to the French Concours which is to be held at that time.

The Consul-General of France is to be guest of honor, so maybe you'd like to come to give him the once over. Almarie Porteous, George Carter, Arthur Cerf, Betty Mossawir, and George Alves are going to perform for the audience by delivering speeches in French.

After the doings, there is a possibility that tea and cake will be served. The winner of the contest will be given the gold medal as a reward. The French Club is also sponsoring a final dinner to be held at the Monte Carlo Restaurant on Monday, May 17th at 6:30. Those planning to attend should sign up on the poster in the Co-op.

IF YOU'RE FEELING SHEEPISH,
EWE OUGHT TO TRY AN ANNUAL.

Again the various athletic equipment has been put away, designating the conclusion of another sport season at State. With every athletic team in the school saying goodbye to competition for the semester, everyone is going back to his studies and is starting to build up enthusiasm for next term's football squad.

This year's eleven definitely figures to be the strongest in State history. Besides this they will have their toughest schedule of all time. For the first time in history they will oppose the California Aggies on the gridiron. Formerly the Mustangs were figured to be too tough for the locals but this season they will probably be very lucky to win.

Coaches Harden and Farmer will have a wealth of material to work with. No one has graduated from last year, however, a few have dropped out of school since the 1936 season.

ED SMITH ATHLETIC MANAGER

Little mention has been made of the fact that Ed Smith has been elected Athletic Manager for the next year. Ed, who has been active in athletics for the past two years, and has also been a brother sport editor, really deserves the job. He will have his hands full as an Athletic Manager can do much for a college as he is an important factor in the success of the athletic situation in a school, and as is the case in practically every college, athletics make or break the spirit and finances of an institution. Congratulations Ed, and lots of luck.

STONE HURLING SEMI-PRO

Runar Stone, just completing a successful year as pitcher for the State nine, is throwing them over for the San Anselmo semi-pros. Ru had a little difficulty getting started, but he is due to really go to town in the near future.

Bill Abbey is catching for the strong American Legion Bell nine. This squad is one of the strongest in the bay region, and Bill is batting in fifth position.

Practically every player on the Purple nine has at some time or another cavorted on a semi-pro diamond.

Nine Possesses Highest Average of State Squads

Ball Club Wins Eighteen, Loses Five to Nose Out Casaba Men

By BILL ROSE

Now with the college year almost over and the Gater athletic teams on the shelf for the next few months, it is interesting to go back over the records set up by these same athletic teams.

After pondering over the won-lost columns, doing some figuring, and making some comparisons, we find that the slugging State nine has again—for the third successive year—turned in the highest athletic average. Coach Harden's team won eighteen games and lost but five, for a percentage of .782.

Trailing some thirty-two points behind the baseballers are the casaba tossers having an average of .750 from their record of fifteen victories against only five losses. Considering that Coach Dan Farmer started his season with only two veterans returning, the basketball team had a remarkably fine season.

Coach Dave Cox's tracksters came in third place among State's "Big Three" teams with an average of .714. The scanty-clads won five of their seven meets this season. Here again was a season successful beyond expectation.

Although the football team had what might be considered a good season in view of the fact that it beat S.F.J.C. and tied Chico, the lads in moleskins boast an average of only .400. The team won two, tied one, and lost three. And here again was a good enough season when it is realized that the team was practically a Freshman outfit.

Last and least came the racketeers with a percentage of .100, having gotten under the wire with one win. Of ten matches, eight of them conference, the Gaters came out on top only against Cal-Aggies. This was a particularly unlooked-for outcome due to the past success of the tennis men against these same teams in years past.

Throwing the successes and failures of all the athletic teams together we find that State won forty-one contests out of sixty-five played, having dropped twenty-four. This came to an average of .631 and not bad for this or any other college.

Westminster Club

Westminster Club met Wednesday, May 5 at Westminster Center on Page and Webster Streets. The guest speaker for the day was Mrs. Dorothea Fisher Spencer, who gave a talk on "Interracial understanding and misunderstandings." President Robert Prather expressed the enjoyment the group had on their recent week-end trip to the Bolander home at Point Reyes.

Block "S" Indoor Baseballers Beat Golden Gaters 2-0

Blockwearers Champions After Close Victory Over Journalists

Scoring two runs in the first inning the Block "S" successfully managed to win the intramural baseball championship from the Golden Gater nine 2-0 last Thursday noon on the upper field.

The game was without a doubt the best played and the most interesting to watch of all the twenty contests in the entire tournament. Both teams hit the ball hard, but they were unable to score after the initial frame.

BLOCK "S" SCORES

In the first inning the Blockmen tallied on three hits and an error by Dave Schutz. Prominent in the rally were Bud Glasgow, Ronnie English and Louie Glavich.

English and Kenny Johnson did the pitching for the Block "S" and Gaters respectively. Many times Johnson pulled himself out of tough holes by striking out a batter or making him pop up.

Previous to this championship game the Block "S" had trounced Newman Club 20-1 in the semi-windup event.

STARTING LINEUPS

Lineups for the game were as follows: Block "S" Ronnie English, pitcher; Bud Glasgow, catcher; Runar Stone, first base; Hal Thompson, short

Each member of the two teams will get a ribbon. The Block "S" men will receive first place medals with the Golden Gater nine the runner-up awards. The tourney, the biggest in State's intramural history, attracted well over 100 entrants.

Nineteen Initiates to 'Get Works' by Block 'S'

Nineteen lowly men of athletics have been experiencing the horrors of "Hell Week" as the Block "S" has been proceeding to initiate new members into its organization.

Starting last Monday, and continuing until late this afternoon, the newcomers into the Block society have been required to perform various odd tasks besides having to wear apparel.

MEN WEAR DRESSES

Neophytes are required to appear on the campus in a dress which stops well above the knees, a vest turned inside out, and a Purple and Gold ribbon tied to the vest with a horse blanket pin.

Although they are not allowed to smoke, the new members must carry a package of cigarettes with them at all times. Also they must have in their possession one (1) egg, very much raw and uncooked.

Noonday performances are being given by the neophytes every day in front of the Women's Gym, but the real initiation will take place behind closed doors this afternoon at four.

NINETEEN GET IT

Those who are being taken into the Block "S" society this week are the following: "Slinger" Pantages, Harry Robey, Don Amos, Jack Hulbert, Dick Osborne, Ed Collins, Sid Fischer, Roy Wormell, Rod Cavanagh, Chuck Carson, Doug Crary, Jim Hopkins, Stan Evans, Slip Madigan, "Lefty" Luntz, Joe De Phillips, Martin Callum, Al Cartwright, Dave Schutz and Paul Whang.

These members as well as over twenty others will receive their block awards and sweater and blanket awards at the rally in the Gym today at noon.

Seven athletes—Kenny Wilkes, Joe Lee, George Bogdanoff, Ronnie English, Joe Rosen, Cy Atkinson, and Buford Shreeve will get blankets.

His face beaming like the time his wife presented him with Daniel Junior, Mr. Daniel Farmer, member of the men's physical education department and director of the coming camp, related to your reporter that all but ten of the fifty applications for the Summer Camp course have been applied for and that if anyone wants to go he had better hurry and sign up before it is too late.

Up to his neck in pamphlets telling stories of birds, trees, and various other incidentals of nature, Mr. Farmer looked up to remind that all the sleeping equipment has been installed and that fifty song books have been purchased so that the students can go to town during campfires with their community singing.

"Early to bed and early to rise will be the motto of those attending the camp," according to Farmer. The guys and gals will get up at the crack of dawn (6:45), and go to sleep as the moon comes over the mountain (10:00). "We have busy days planned," chirped Dan, "So they will need all the sleep they can get."

State's science instructors will have their hands full teaching the stooges the beauties of nature. Mrs. Reid, Miss Fisher, Miss Casebolt, will attempt to point out various birds, animals, and plants during hikes and trips through the mountains and in dramatic demonstrations while the undergrads will be dreaming of the swimming hole and the swell dance they could be attending.

A half hour will be set aside each day at the conclusion of lunch for informal discussions and distribution of mail. Nothing definite has been planned on examinations as yet.

Trophy Presentation At Last Noon Dance

Presentation of the gold trophy to the class selected as having presented the best noon dance of the year, will be featured at the final lunch hour hop today. Sponsored jointly by the Block "S" and the W.A.A., the affair will last from 12 to 1 o'clock, and will include a prize dance to settle for all time the question of State's best maple-mop-per.

The trophy will be presented at the end of the hour; it is a good-will gift of Jenkle Jewelers. Those in charge of the swing session expressed the hope that the turn-out will be the best of the year.

Dramatic Critic Gives Lowdown on 'Dulcy'

On May 7th College Theatre presented "Dulcy" in the Little Theatre. Contrary to "The Whole Town's Talking", "Dulcy" was a rapid moving and comparatively well done comedy.

Pat McNamara was an excellent Dulcy, partly due to the fact that she is a good actress, and that the part came naturally to her. Her husband (in the play) Alex Pellett was satisfactory but not up to expectation. Clem Zannini gave the most outstanding performance of the evening in his portrayal of the elderly Mr. Forbes, business man. His makeup especially deserves praise. Harold Jacobs was very amusing and entertaining as the would-be great motion picture producer, Vincent Leach, although the clapping hand gesture was overdone. Van Dyke portrayed by Walter Bartman, was fair, his apparent lack of sureness detracted from his characterization. Sarita Canedo as Sadie, the ex-criminal maid, was excellent. Carola Beetz as the prominent lawyer, was a relief from the other players in that her voice was well modulated and soothing. Dorothy Person as Angela, daughter of Mr. Forbes, was not at all convincing, in that she did not act the romantic part that her part deserved. Virginia Gilde, as Mrs. Forbes, played her part well, but she is capable of much better work. Bob Prather as brother of Dulcy showed that he has dramatic ability. Jack Deasy who learned his part in twenty-four hours in the absence of J. Wallace Gallagher, did a splendid piece of work.

The set carried a color scheme of blue and white throughout and was most effective. The furniture was done by the Advanced Play Production Class as was the set.

The makeup was effective under the able direction of Jack Deasy.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

Carola Beetz, Head of College Theatre—"Exceeded expectation. Pat McNamara a natural. Congrats to Jack Deasy and cast."

Bill Rose: "Very good. Jake was the best character in the play."

Kay Wieldberger: "Very good. Pat played her part well and cast as a whole good."

Roy Laugeson: "Good humor and excellent repartee."

Sigma Gammas Plan Gate Bridge Trip

Members of Sigma Rho Gamma are making plans to hike across the new Golden Gate Bridge on its opening day, Thursday, May 27th. Those planning to attend should see Alice Denhard as soon as possible to let her know how many are coming. They are going to meet on 14th Street near the "C" car line at eight o'clock in the morning and members are urged to bring their lunch and wear suitable clothing.

Dave Schultz—"Pretty good."

Frances Twohig—"Acting fairly good. Didn't like the story as a whole."

Clarice Dechent—"I'd rather not make any statement."

Becky Christian—"Personally, I thought it was very good. Costumes contrasted nicely with the set."
